

Pre-election hype boosts U.K. education coverage

Global TV news | Share of coverage on education topics: January 01, 2015 – April 20, 2015

While the majority of the U.K.'s domestic coverage tends to focus on sports, education topics still managed to breach the awareness threshold as political leaders commented on education issues in the country in the run up the May 2015 elections.